PHILEMON, "My Very Heart"

by Rev. Sarah Are

These are strong words to describe another—words saturated in love and hope, words saturated in connection and promise. Paul writes these words to Philemon, a "dear friend and co-worker," about Philemon's runaway slave, Onesimus. Somewhere along the way, Paul meets Onesimus, Philemon's runaway slave, and chooses not to view him by his status alone, or as a criminal for running away, but as a son.

Call to Worship

Inspired by Ps. 139

We've come to worship God,

who loved us before we were yet born,

who knows us even better than we know ourselves,

whose presence never leaves us,

and whose love for us never ceases.

This is our God. Let's worship together!

Hymn

"In Christ There Is No East or West"

AAH #399

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Merciful Maker, you created us for better use; remake us now. Where we are distorted, re-center and reshape us, bring us low and raise us up. Then fire our hearts until we shine with your glory and find our place in your purpose.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Hear the sound of love poured out. If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation; everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new.

Siblings in faith, in the name of Christ I declare that your story is known, your sin is forgiven, your life is made new. Let us live as those who have experienced Love come to town!
