Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

As followers of Christ, whom are we called to love?
We are called to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength.
And whom else are we called to love?
We are called to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Who is our neighbor?
The stranger, the friend, the poor, the rich, the joyful, the grieving, and even those who challenge us.

Why do we love?
Because God first loved us.

Come, let us worship the God whose love knows no bounds.
Amen.

HymnA Charge to Keep I HaveAAH #468

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we often choose convenience over compassion. We see the suffering of others and pass by on the other side. We make excuses for our indifference, letting fear and prejudice build walls around our hearts. Forgive us for failing to see Your face in our neighbors, especially those who are different or in need. Stir our spirits, heal our hardness of heart, and teach us to love as radically as You love us. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news: God does not pass us by when we are broken, but draws near to heal and restore us. Through Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, and we are made whole. Go forth in peace, empowered by the Spirit to live with open hearts and open hands. Amen.

Sermon

Affirmation of Faith (from The Shorter Catechism, Q. #42 (PCUSA))

What is the sum of the Ten Commandments? The sum of the Ten Commandments is: to love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our mind; and our neighbor as ourselves.
