Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

from Isaiah 43:1-2, GNB

Do not be afraid, says the LORD, I will save you.
I have called you by name - you are mine.

When you pass through deep waters, I will be with you;
your troubles will not overwhelm you.

For I am the Lord your God,
the holy God, who saves you.

Hymn

“How Firm a Foundation”GTG #463

Merciful Jesus, we confess that we would rather stay on the familiar shore than climb into the boat with you and sail toward the other side, where strangers become neighbors, fear becomes faith, and love asks more of us than comfort ever will. Please help us when the winds of our frightened hearts begin to howl and the waves rise higher than our courage, and please remind us when we forget that you do not abandon us but speak your quiet, holy peace until the storms within us become still. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Friends, hear the good news: the One who calms the wind and the waves also quiets our guilt, forgives our fearful hearts, and carries us in mercy toward the other side. Amen!

Sermon

“Why Are You Afraid?”Trevor Scott Barton

Affirmation of Faith (from The Immigrants Creed)

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the eternal immigrant from God’s kingdom among us, who speaks all languages, lives in all countries, and reunites all races. I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers. I believe that the communion of saints begins when we embrace all God’s people in all their diversity. I believe in forgiveness, which makes us all equal before God, and in reconciliation, which heals our brokenness.
