What About The Ifs

If only, YOU, had come a day earlier, maybe you could have taken me to the pool.
If only YOU waited a day later, perhaps I would be ready.
If only you would simply provide solutions to my problems.
If only it weren't so difficult.
If only I didn't desire the very source of my joy.
If only I realized HE is standing before me.

If only I had known this path all along. Maybe I would have done it in 33 years instead of 38.
If only I realized that healing doesn't require such an unconventional blessing, because it is within me.
If only I believed the divine spirit constantly hovers around us, waiting for interaction, consideration, and participation.
If only I stopped searching for an escape and looked into my heart and found the Lord.
Then I could get rid of the "Ifs" that come with the fear of rejection, including the rejection of myself, keeping me trapped.
But just what if I looked up and saw You as my True exit sign, equipped with a rug beneath my arms.
Then there will be no ifs about me leaving behind old ways, embracing the New Ways of the Holy Spirit falling fresh on me.

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart;
I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

I will be glad and exult in you;
I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Hymn “We Come to You for Healing, Lord” GTG #796

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Lord of forgiveness and redemption, hear now our humble confession. We have harbored the sickness of ill will towards others, holding them responsible for the same mistakes that we ourselves make. We are sickened by the ways of the world, but we do not speak out against them. We justify ourselves as weak and wait for others to do the hard work. Forgive us for our complacency and our fearful skirting of responsibility for ourselves and for others. Grant us the courage to be made well as only you know how. Amen

Assurance of Pardon

Friends, God knows our weaknesses and our fears. God offers to reveal to us the overcoming power of love as it touches each of us and all of us. With that good medicine, we too can rise from our waiting. We can lift our heads and walk right into the bright light of Christ that is already shining on us to make us whole. Thanks be to God. Amen

Affirmation of Faith (from The United Church of Canada)

We are not alone, we live in God’s world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, The Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen
