“A r i s e n” by Hannah Garrity, oil on canvas
inspired by Mark 16:1-11 (Mary Magdalene)

Why are we so cynical? Is our cynicism an effort to check our sources? None of us want to be taken in by a ruse, so I understand the viewpoint of a doubting Thomas. I understand why the followers disbelieved Mary Magdalene. I would have wanted proof as well, especially if I was ashamed of my behavior, as they surely were. But why did she believe? Perhaps she simply knows deep down what is right. She has nothing to hide, she has confessed her sins. She can see clearly. ~Hannah Garrity

Prelude
Welcome and Announcements
Call to Worship based on Ps. 16: 7-11

We know that God is always with us,
so we come this morning to remind ourselves that we are with God.

In this time of worship,
May our hearts be glad;

May our souls rejoice;
May our bodies rest secure.

God shows us the path of life
And in God's presence there is fullness of joy. We are so glad to be together in God's presence! Let us worship God together!

Hymn "Leaning On The Everlasting Arms" AAH #371

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Holy God, we confess that we would like an "easy" faith, one that doesn't cause us to look within ourselves or to identify those many ways in which we have forsaken you. But faith is never easy. Forgive us, God. Heal our hearts from the wounds which have been inflicted upon us by the anger and misunderstandings which occur in relationships. Fill us with resurrection hope that we might be a living hope for the world. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

God is merciful. God is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. Feel the healing, loving power of God in your lives, for it is given to you through Jesus Christ. In Christ, we're forgiven! Thanks be to God! Amen.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen!
