Prayer of Co	onfession (Unison)	Stan Reid
Holy and loving God,
we lo	ok for you in the joyous, festive and holy places.
Forgive	us when we do not look for you in the	hard times and the painful places, or among those who are abused or forgotten, homeless or hungry.
We liste	n to Christmas stories and sing Christmas carols.
Forgive	us when we fail to notice what you teach us,
what	you ask of us, in the stories of the birth and life of Jesus.
As we co	elebrate the birth of one born homeless,
who l	ived in poverty, whose family fled in fear for their lives,
pursu	ed by a ruthless dictator, help us to remember your compassion and care for al	l who are vulnerable and in need.
Forgive	us when we forget what Jesus showed us by his life,
and n	nove us to respond to your gracious gift of love
by lov	vingly opening our arms to all people. Amen.

_	f Forgiveness
One:	In God's mercy, God offers forgiveness and salvation.
Many: In love God redeems us, lifts us up and carries us. Thanks be to God!

"O Come All Ye Faithful" (verses 1 & 3)

Nazareth Presbyterian

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant; O come ye; O come ye to Bethlehem! Come, and behold him, born the King of angels! O come, let us adore him; O come, let us adore him; O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord!

Response Hymn 133

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation. Sing, all ye citizens of Bethlehem. Glory to God, Glory in the highest. O come, let us adore him; O come, let us adore him; O come, let us adore him,

Hymn 151

Hymn 148

"We Three Kings of Orient Are". (verses 1 & 5) Eastminster Presbyterian

We three kings of Orient are; bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star. O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

Glorious now behold him arise. King and God and Sacrifice: Alleluia! Alleluia! sounds through the earth and skies. O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

Christ. the Lord!

Listen to the angels sing:

"Glory, glory, glory!"

Let the heavens ring.

Joseph, Mary and Jesus Escape to Egypt Matthew 2:13-15

Hymn 154

"Jesus Entered Egypt"

Jesus entered Egypt fleeing Herod's hand, living as an alien in a foreign land. Far from home and country with his family, was there room and welcome for this refugee? Jesus was a migrant living as a guest with the friends and strangers who could offer rest. Do we hold wealth lightly so that we can share shelter with the homeless, and abundant care?

Joseph, Mary and Jesus Return from Egypt Matthew 2:19-23

Eastminster Presbyterian

Jesus crosses borders with the wand 'ring poor, Searching for a refuge, for an open door. Do our words and actions answer Jesus 's plea: "Give the lowly welcome, and you welcome me"?

Hymn 149 "All Hail to God's Anointed" (verses 1, 2, & 3) First Presbyterian, Spartanburg

All hail to God's anointed. You shall come down like You come with rescue speedy great David's greater Son! to those who suffer wrong. showers All hail, in time appointed, to help the poor and needy upon the fruitful earth; your reign on earth begun! and bid the weak be strong; love, joy, and hope, like You come to break to give them songs for sighing, flowers. their darkness turn to light. oppression, spring in your path to birth. whose souls. condemned and Before you on the mountains to set the captive free, to take away transgression shall peace, the herald, go, dving. and rule in equity. and righteousness in fountains are precious in your sight. from hill to valley flow.

A Christmas Creed (Unison)

We believe in Jesus Christ and the beauty of the gospel born in Bethlehem. We believe in the One whose spirit glorified a little town, whose spirit still brings light to all of creation. We believe in the One the rulers of the earth ignored and the proud could never understand; whose life was among common people; who was most welcome among the least and lowly. We believe in the One who proclaimed the love of God to be invincible. We believe in the One whose cradle was a mother's arms and whose bed was a feeding trough; whose modest home in Nazareth had little wealth but lots of love; who helped people see themselves as God saw them; who lifted human weakness up to meet the strength of God. We confess our everlasting need of God: the need for forgiveness for our selfishness and greed; the need of new life for weary souls; the need of love for hearts grown cold. We believe in God who gives us the best of himself. We believe in Jesus, the Son of the living God, born in Bethlehem, for us and for the whole world. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Debbie Foster

One: God of love

Many: Guide our feet into the way of peace.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn 134 "Joy to the World" (vers	e 1 & 4) Nazareth Presbyterian
Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her king; let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.	He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love, and wonders of his love, and wonders, wonders of his love.
